

Terms & Conditions

How does Eindhoven University of Technology process data in relation to HackEval

1. Introduction

In these Terms & Conditions, we provide you with information concerning the collection of your data by Eindhoven University of Technology in relation to HackEval.

If you have any questions concerning our use of your personal data after reading these Terms & Conditions, you may contact us at contact-info@hackathon-planning-kit.org.

This Terms & Conditions is valid since September 1, 2024. The latest adjustments to these Terms & Conditions were made on November 13, 2024.

2. Who is responsible for your data?

Eindhoven University of Technology is responsible for the careful and proper processing of your data.

3. What data do we process?

In relation to HackEval we process, among others, the following anonymized data:

- Age
- Gender
- Perceived minority status

4. What is the basis for processing your data?

Eindhoven University of Technology processes data of the subject who has given consent to the processing of their data.

5. Who will have access to your data?

5.1 Access to your data within the Eindhoven University of Technology

All relevant employees who are involved with HackEval have access to your data, but only as far as is required to fulfill their respective tasks. These employees are the researchers in the Social Software Engineering group (<https://research.tue.nl/en/organisations/social-software-engineering>).

5.2 Access to your data by third parties

Third parties will only access aggregated data for comparison purposes.

6. For how long will your personal data be kept?

Eindhoven University of Technology will not keep for longer than is necessary to reach the goals for which the data has been collected. In most cases, the retention period of the data is ten years after publication; after that period, the data will be deleted.

7. Will my data be processed outside the European Economic Area ('EEA')?

TU/e endeavors to process your data only within the European Economic Area ("EEA") by storing your data on a server in the EEA wherever possible. Sometimes this is not possible, for example when we transfer data to a university outside the EEA for which you have given permission.

If we engage processors, we require them to store data on servers in the EEA. When this is not possible, we take the necessary measures to provide an adequate level of protection for your data.

8. How are your data protected?

Eindhoven University of Technology has implemented appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect the data against unintended or unlawful destruction of the data, unintended damage, loss, alteration or unauthorized disclosure or access, and against all other forms of unlawful processing (including, but not limited to, unnecessary collection of data) or further processing. These appropriate technical and organizational measures include restriction of access to data through authorization and authentication.

9. Whom can you contact?

If you have questions about how we process your data, please let us know via contact-info@hackathon-planning-kit.org. We will be happy to assist you.